ARTICLE 2: DISCLOSURES

765 ILCS 7715 et seq.

Section 5. Definitions: As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires the following terms have the meaning given in this section:

“Residential real property” means real property improved with not less than one nor more than four residential dwelling units: units in residential cooperatives; or, condominium units including the limited common elements allocated to the exclusive use thereof that form an integral part of the condominium unit. The term includes a manufactured home as defined in subdivision (53) of Section 9-102 of the Uniform Commercial Code that is real property as defined in the Conveyance and Encumbrance of Manufactured Homes as Real Property and Severance Act.

“Seller” means every person or entity who is an owner, beneficiary of a trust, contract purchaser or lessee of a ground lease, who has an interest (legal or equitable) in residential real property. However, “seller” shall not include any person who has both (i) never occupied the residential real property and (ii) never had the management responsibility for the residential real property nor delegated such responsibility for the residential real property to another person or entity.

“Prospective buyer” means any person or entity negotiating or offering to become an owner or lessee of residential real property by means of a transfer for value to which this Act applies.

Section 10. Applicability. Except as provided in Section 15, this Act applies to any transfer by sale, exchange, installment land sale-contract, assignment of beneficial interest, lease with an option to purchase, ground lease or assignment of ground lease of residential real property.

Section 15. Applicability; Exceptions. The provisions of this Act do not apply to the following:

(1) Transfers pursuant to court order, including, but not limited to, transfers ordered by a probate court in administration of an estate, transfers between spouses resulting from a judgment of dissolution of marriage or legal separation, transfers pursuant to an order of possession, transfers by a trustee in bankruptcy, transfers by eminent domain and transfers resulting from a decree for specific performance.

(2) Transfers from a mortgagor to a mortgagee by deed in lieu of foreclosure or consent judgment, transfer by judicial deed issued pursuant to a foreclosure sale to the successful bidder or the assignee of a certificate of sale, transfer by a collateral assignment of a beneficial interest of a land trust, or a transfer by a mortgagee or a successor in interest to the mortgagee’s secured position or a beneficiary under a deed in trust who has acquired the real property by deed in lieu of foreclosure, consent judgment or judicial deed issued pursuant to a foreclosure sale.

(3) Transfers by a fiduciary in the course of the administration of a decedent’s estate, guardianship, conservatorship, or trust.

(4) Transfers from one co-owner to one or more other co-owners.

(5) Transfers pursuant to testate or intestate succession.

(6) Transfers made to a spouse, or to a person or persons in the lineal line of consanguinity of one or more of the sellers.

(7) Transfers from an entity that has taken title to residential real property from a seller for the purpose of assisting in the relocation of the seller, so long as the entity makes available to all prospective buyers a copy of the disclosure form furnished to the entity by the seller.

(8) Transfers to or from any governmental entity.

(9) Transfers of newly constructed residential real property that has not been occupied.

Section 20. Disclosure Report; Completion; Time of Delivery. A seller of residential real property shall complete all applicable items in the disclosure document described in Section 35 of this Act. The seller shall deliver to the prospective buyer the written disclosure statement required by this Act before the signing of a written agreement by the seller and prospective buyer that would, subject to the satisfaction of any negotiated contingencies, require the prospective buyer to accept a transfer of the residential real property.

Section 25. Liability of seller.

(a) The seller is not liable for any error, inaccuracy, or omission of any information delivered pursuant to this Act if (i) the seller had no knowledge of the error, inaccuracy, or omission, (ii) the error, inaccuracy, or omission was based on a reasonable belief that a material defect or other matter not disclosed had been corrected, or (iii) the error, inaccuracy, or omission was based on information provided by a public agency or by a licensed engineer, land surveyor, structural pest control operator, or by a contractor about matters within the scope of the contractor’s occupation and the seller had no knowledge of the error, inaccuracy, or omission.

(b) The seller shall disclose material defects of which the seller has actual knowledge.

(c) The seller is not obligated by this Act to make any specific investigation or inquiry in an effort to complete the disclosure statement.

Section 30. Disclosure supplement. If, prior to closing, any seller has actual knowledge of an error, inaccuracy, or omission in any prior disclosure document after delivery of that disclosure document to a prospective buyer, that seller shall supplement the prior disclosure document with a written supplemental disclosure.

Section 35. Disclosure report form. . . . [omitted]

Section 40. Material defect. If a material defect is disclosed in the Residential Real Property Disclosure Report, after acceptance by the prospective buyer of an offer or counter-offer made by a seller or after the execution of an offer made by a prospective buyer that is accepted by the seller for the conveyance of the residential real property, then the Prospective Buyer may, within three business days after receipt of that Report by the prospective buyer, terminate the contract or other agreement without any liability or recourse except for the return to prospective buyer of all earnest money deposits or down payments paid by prospective buyer in the transaction. If a material defect is disclosed in a supplement to this disclosure document, the prospective buyer shall not have a right to terminate unless the material defect results from an error, inaccuracy, or omission of which the seller had actual knowledge at the time the prior disclosure document was completed and signed by the seller. The right to terminate the contract, however, shall no longer exist after the conveyance of the residential real property. For purposes of this Act the termination shall be deemed to be made when written notice of termination is personally delivered to at least one of the sellers identified in the contract or other agreement or when deposited, certified or registered mail, with the United States Postal Service, addressed to one of the sellers at the address indicated in the contract or agreement, or, if there is not an address contained therein, then at the address indicated for the residential real property on the Report.

Section 45. Effect of Act on Other Statutes or Common Law. This Act is not intended to limit or modify any obligation to disclose created by any other statute or that may exist in common law in order to avoid fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit in the transaction.

Section 50. Disclosure Report; Method of Delivery. Delivery of the Residential Real Property Disclosure Report provided by this Act shall be by:

(1) personal or facsimile delivery to the prospective buyer;

(2) depositing the report with the United States Postal Service, postage prepaid, first class mail, addressed to the prospective buyer at the address provided by the prospective buyer or indicated on the contract or other agreement; or

(3) depositing the report with an alternative delivery service such as Federal Express, UPS, or Airborne, delivery charges prepaid, addressed to the prospective buyer at the address provided by the prospective buyer or indicated on the contract or other agreement.

For purposes of this Act, delivery to one prospective buyer is deemed delivery to all prospective buyers. Delivery to an authorized individual acting on behalf of a prospective buyer constitutes delivery to all prospective buyers. Delivery of the Report is effective upon receipt by the prospective buyer. Receipt may be acknowledged on the Report, in an agreement for the conveyance of the residential real property, or shown in any other verifiable manner.

Section 55. Violations and damages. If the seller fails or refuses to provide the disclosure document prior to the conveyance of the residential real property, the buyer shall have the right to terminate the contract. A person who knowingly violates or fails to perform any duty prescribed by any provision of this Act or who discloses any information on the Residential Real Property Disclosure Report that he knows to be false shall be liable in the amount of actual damages and court costs, and the court may award reasonable attorney fees incurred by the prevailing party.

Section 60. Limitation of Action. No action for violation of this Act may be commenced later than one year from the earlier of the date of possession, date of occupancy or date of recording of an instrument of conveyance of the residential real property.

MEASUREMENT OF SQUARE FOOTAGE DISCLOSURE

Contract Dated: _____

Property Address: 6000 Concordia Rd, Belleville, IL 62223

By and between: Don M Wiggins and Diane L Wiggins, (“Seller”) and _____, (“Buyer”).

BUYER AND SELLER EACH ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT BROKER HAS ADVISED THEM THAT BROKER: (1) is not an expert in measuring real estate structures or dwellings, (2) does not independently measure the total square footage of the properties that it markets for sale and/or shows to buyers, and (3) makes no opinion, representation, or warranty as to the accuracy of any measurement provided to Buyer or Seller, or relied upon by either.

To the extent that BROKER provides or shares information about total square footage of properties, then: (1) such information was received from one or more third-party sources, (2) is only an approximation, and (3) has not been verified by BROKER. There are several alternate standards relied upon for calculating total square footage, measurements, and the available data about total square footage can vary depending upon many variables, including but not limited to, the data source, the measurement standard that was used, the type of measurement device that was used, the date of measurement, and any obstructions, impediments or other limitations on accessibility or measurement points. One common source for total square footage is public information provided by the county assessor’s office. However, the county assessor’s office does not typically independently verify or warrant the accuracy of any such information. If you wish to have verifiable and accurate information about the total square footage of a particular property, you should retain a qualified professional appraiser to measure the property according to the measurement standard that you and/or the appraiser deem appropriate. The price per square foot for any property is a calculation based upon, among other things, total square footage, so price per square foot also is only an approximation and is subject to the same uncertainties and limitations described in this disclosure. In the event that any contract for the purchase or sale of real estate is dependent on or calculated based upon a square footage amount, the parties should acknowledge and agree upon the actual square footage to be used for such purposes.

ILLINOIS REALTORS® DISCLOSURE AND CONSENT TO DUAL AGENCY (DESIGNATED AGENCY)

NOTE TO CONSUMER: THIS DOCUMENT SERVES THREE PURPOSES. FIRST, IT DISCLOSES THAT A REAL ESTATE LICENSEE MAY POTENTIALLY ACT AS A DUAL AGENT, THAT IS, REPRESENT MORE THAN ONE PARTY TO THE TRANSACTION. SECOND, THIS DOCUMENT EXPLAINS THE CONCEPT OF DUAL AGENCY. THIRD, THIS DOCUMENT SEEKS YOUR CONSENT TO ALLOW THE REAL ESTATE LICENSEE TO ACT AS A DUAL AGENT. A LICENSEE MAY LEGALLY ACT AS A DUAL AGENT ONLY WITH YOUR CONSENT. BY CHOOSING TO SIGN THIS DOCUMENT, YOU ARE CONSENTING TO DUAL AGENCY REPRESENTATION.

The undersigned Brad Chandler & Brenda Chandler, ("Licensee"), (insert name(s) of Licensee undertaking dual representation)
may undertake a dual representation (represent both the seller or landlord and the buyer or tenant) for the sale or lease of property. The undersigned acknowledge they were informed of the possibility of this type of representation. Before signing this document please read the following:

Representing more than one party to a transaction presents a conflict of interest since both clients may rely upon Licensee's advice and the client's respective interests may be adverse to each other. Licensee will undertake this representation only with the written consent of ALL clients in the transaction.

Any agreement between the clients as to a final contract price and other terms is a result of negotiations between the clients acting in their own best interests and on their own behalf. You acknowledge that Licensee has explained the implications of dual representation, including the risks involved, and understand that you have been advised to seek independent advice from your advisors or attorneys before signing any documents in this transaction.

WHAT A LICENSEE CAN DO FOR CLIENTS WHEN ACTING AS A DUAL AGENT

1. Treat all clients honestly.
2. Provide information about the property to the buyer or tenant.
3. Disclose all latent material defects in the property that are known to the Licensee.
4. Disclose financial qualification of the buyer or tenant to the seller or landlord.
5. Explain real estate terms.
6. Help the buyer or tenant to arrange for property inspections.
7. Explain closing costs and procedures.
8. Help the buyer compare financing alternatives.
9. Provide information about comparable properties that have sold so both clients may make educated decisions on what price to accept or offer.

WHAT LICENSEE CANNOT DISCLOSE TO CLIENTS WHEN ACTING AS A DUAL AGENT

1. Confidential information that Licensee may know about a client, without that client's permission.
2. The price or terms the seller or landlord will take other than the listing price without permission of the seller or landlord.
3. The price or terms the buyer or tenant is willing to pay without permission of the buyer or tenant.
4. A recommended or suggested price or terms the buyer or tenant should offer.
5. A recommended or suggested price or terms the seller or landlord should counter with or accept.

If either client is uncomfortable with this disclosure and dual representation, please let Licensee know. You are not required to sign this document unless you want to allow the Licensee to proceed as a Dual Agent in this transaction.

By signing below, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this form and voluntarily consent to the Licensee acting as a Dual Agent (that is, to represent BOTH the seller or landlord and the buyer or tenant) should that become necessary.

Required Agency Disclosure Under the Act

- ▶ No later than entering a brokerage agreement (can be an oral agreement), you must be advised of the following from the brokerage company
 - That a designated agency relationship exists
 - The name of your designated agent(s) in writing
 - What the brokerage company will be paid and the company's policy regarding payment to other brokerage companies that might be involved in your transaction

Disclosed Dual Agency

- ▶ Sometimes a designated agent can represent both you and the opposite party in the transaction in a limited role
- ▶ Before doing so, the agent must have the informed written consent of the parties
- ▶ If your designated agent might act as a dual agent, he/she should talk to you about the potential for dual agency and give you a disclosure form entitled Disclosure and Consent to Dual Agency for your review
 - You will see that the agent's role becomes limited when you have dual agency
 - You are under no obligation to consent to disclosed dual agency
- ▶ If you do consent, you must sign the disclosure form before the agent acts as a disclosed dual agent
 - Sometimes, this language will be included in your written brokerage agreement
- ▶ You will be asked to sign a confirmation of your consent to dual agency no later than when you sign a purchase or lease contract

Treatment of Customers as Opposed to Clients

- ▶ Sometimes someone on the opposite side of your transaction will not be represented by a real estate agent, in which case your agent will give that party a notice that tells that person the agent represents you only
 - This notice might be called a Notice of No Agency Relationship
 - It will allow the agent to do certain clerical or ministerial acts for that party for your benefit
 - Some examples of ministerial acts might include
 - Talking to an inquiring consumer about availability and pricing of brokerage services
 - Responding to phone calls from a consumer about price or location of a property
 - Setting an appointment to view a property
 - Completing business or factual information on a contract for the consumer but on your behalf
- ▶ If you are a customer and not a client, you should receive a Notice of No Agency Relationship
 - You should not disclose anything to the agent who is treating you as a customer that would be confidential to you, i.e. anything that might hinder your bargaining position, or anything you would not want the opposing party to know and that is not otherwise published.

Exclusive Brokerage Agreements

- ▶ Sometimes, your agent will ask you to sign an exclusive brokerage agreement
- ▶ This means that you are agreeing to work only with the real estate brokerage company and designated agent(s) named in the agreement to the exclusion of other real estate firms and agents
- ▶ If you are the seller, the contract will likely be called an Exclusive Right to Sell or an Exclusive Agency Agreement (also sometimes called an Exclusive Seller Representation Agreement)
- ▶ If you are the buyer, the contract will likely be called an Exclusive Right to Acquire, Exclusive Right to Purchase or Exclusive Buyer Agency Agreement (sometimes called an Exclusive Buyer Representation Agreement)
- ▶ Under an exclusive brokerage agreement, the designated agent(s) is required by the Act to provide certain minimum services. These services generally include:
 - Accepting and presenting offers and counteroffers
 - Assisting you in the preparation of offers, counteroffers etc., and
 - Answering your questions related to negotiations in a real estate transaction

This information is being provided in accordance with the Illinois Real Estate License Act of 2000 (the Act) to help you be more informed in the buying, selling or leasing of real estate.
